Citi Launched 12th Edition of Citigold Private Client Young Successor Program

Empowering Young Successors with a Wealth of Knowledge and Possibilities

Hong Kong – Citi recently held the 12th edition of the Citigold Private Client Young Successor Program in Singapore which saw a cohort of 37 young adults aged 18-25 invited by Citi Hong Kong, Citi Singapore, and Citi International Personal Bank Singapore.

The participants from 11 markets around the globe embarked on an action-packed 3.5-day journey encompassing knowledge of wealth management, sustainable environmental conservation and innovative fintech development, through insightful industry visits and dynamic interactions with Citi's professionals and its partners.

Since its inauguration in 2013, the Young Successor Program has equipped hundreds of future successors from all over the world with industry know-how and practical knowledge about wealth and financial management as well as entrepreneurship, as they become increasingly involved in the handling of their family's wealth and succession planning.

At Citi, it has always been our commitment and mission to bring together the full power of One-Citi to better serve our Citigold Private Client customers with financial solutions tailored to meet their unique needs, including legacy preservation to protect their life's achievements, and to ease the transition to future generations.

Citi has developed the Young Successor Program in partnership with a number of enterprises and organizations specially curated to provide insights relevant to this audience.

During the 3.5-day program in Singapore this year, our young successors from different markets have had an introduction to asset management with Capital Group, sharpened their practical soft skills by building a strong personal profile with LinkedIn, immersed themselves in the latest technology and virtual reality experiences at the Mastercard Experience Center, as well as gaining insights on sustainable operations at the Mandai Wildlife Reserve.
